8. Information on data security measures

The Data Controller’s employees are required to ensure during their work that no unauthorized persons may get access to the personal data processed by the Data Controller, as well as to provide storage for the personal data in a way that no unauthorized persons may get access to them, or obtain, alter or destroy them.

The data protection system of the Data Controller is supervised by the managing director.

The Data Controller takes appropriate technical and organizational measures and develops procedural rules to ensure the security of the personal data processed, and to protect it specifically against unauthorized access, alteration, data transfer, disclosure, erasure or accidental destruction.

9. Rights and remedies available to the data subject

The data subject may request information on the processing of their personal data, and may request the rectification of their personal data or, with the exception of mandatory data processing, may request its erasure or withdrawal, and may exercise their rights to data portability and objection in the way indicated at the time the data was collected, at the contact details of the data controller above.

9.1 Right to information

BOX PRINT - FSD PACKAGING Kft. takes appropriate measures to provide any information referred to in Articles 13 and 14 and any communication under Articles 15 to 22 and 34 of the GDPR relating to the processing of personal data to the data subjects in a concise, transparent, intelligible and easily accessible form, using clear and plain language.

9.2 The data subject’s right of access

The data subject shall have the right to obtain from the controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning him or her are being processed, and, where that is the case, access to the personal data and the following information: the purposes of the processing; the categories of personal data concerned; the recipients or categories of recipient to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed, in particular recipients in third countries or international organisations; the envisaged period for which the personal data will be stored; the right to rectification and erasure, the right to restricting data processing, the right to objection; the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority; information on data sources; the existence of automated decision-making, including profiling, and meaningful information about the logic involved, as well as the significance and the envisaged consequences of such processing for the data subject. The data controller shall provide the requested information within no more than 30 days of the date of the request.

9.3 Right to rectification

The data subject has the right to request BOX PRINT – FSD PACKAGING Kft to rectify any inaccurate personal data, or to supplement any missing data.

9.4 Right to erasure

The data subject has the right to obtain from BOX PRINT – FSD PACKAGING Kft the erasure of their personal data without undue delay, in case any of the following reasons exist:

- the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- the data subject withdraws consent on which the processing is based, and where there is no other legal ground for the processing;
- the data subject objects to the processing pursuant to and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing;
- the personal data have been unlawfully processed;
- the personal data have to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation in Union or Member State law to which the controller is subject;
- the personal data have been collected in relation to the offer of information society services.

Erasure of data may not be requested if data processing is necessary: for exercising the right of freedom of expression and information; for compliance with a legal obligation which requires processing by Union or Member State law to which the controller is subject or for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller; for reasons of public interest in the area of public health, archiving, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes; or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

9.5 Right to be forgotten

Where the controller has made the personal data public and is obliged to erase the personal data, the controller, taking account of available technology and the cost of implementation, shall take reasonable steps, including technical measures, to inform controllers which are processing the personal data that the data subject has requested the erasure by such controllers of any links to, or copy or replication of, those personal data.

The right to restrict processing.

At the request of the data subject, BOX PRINT - FSD PACKAGING Kft shall restrict data processing where one of the following conditions applies:

- the accuracy of the personal data is contested by the data subject, in which case the restriction shall last for a period enabling verification of the accuracy of the personal data;
- the processing is unlawful and the data subject opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead;
- the controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but the data subject requests the same for the assertion, exercise or defence of legal claims; or
- the data subject has objected to processing; in this case such restriction shall be valid until it is determined whether the legitimate grounds of the controller override those of the data subject.

Where processing has been restricted, personal data shall, with the exception of storage, only be processed with the data subject's consent or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person or for reasons of important public interest of the Union or of a Member State.

9.6 Right to data portability

The data subject is entitled to receive the personal data related to them that was provided by them to the data controller, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format, and also has the right to transmit that data to another data controller.

9.7 Right to object

The data subject has the right, on grounds relating to their particular situation, to object at any time to the processing of their personal data for public interest or for exercising public authority vested in the controller, or if processing is necessary for enforcing the legitimate interests pursued by the controller or by a third party, including profiling based on the aforementioned regulations. In case of objection, the controller shall no longer process the personal data unless there are compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject or are connected with the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

9.8 Automated individual decision-making, including profiling

The data subject has the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling, which produces legal effects concerning them or otherwise significantly affects them.

Where personal data are processed for direct marketing purposes, the Data Subject shall have the right to object at any time to processing of personal data concerning him or her for such marketing, which includes profiling to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing. Where the data subject objects to processing for direct marketing purposes, the personal data shall no longer be processed for such purposes.

The controller shall provide information on action taken on a request to the data subject without undue delay and at the latest within one month of receipt of the request. That period may be extended by two further months where necessary, taking into account the complexity and number of the requests. The controller shall inform the data subject of any such extension within one month of receipt of the request, together with the reasons for the delay. Where the data subject makes the request by electronic form means, the information shall be provided by electronic means where possible, unless otherwise requested by the data subject.

If the controller does not take action on the request of the data subject, the controller shall inform the data subject without delay and at the latest within one month of receipt of the request of the reasons for not taking action and on the possibility of lodging a complaint with a supervisory authority and seeking a judicial remedy.

9.9 Right of withdrawal

The data subject has the right to withdraw their consent at any time. The withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing that was carried out based on consent before its withdrawal.

9.10 Right to turn to court

The User may, at their choice, enforce their claim also in court. If the User's request was rejected by the Company or they disagree with the decision of the Company, and the Company fails to make a decision within the time limit, the user can report it to the National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information, or may turn to a court that has jurisdiction according to the User's residence or place of stay, within 30 days after the last day of the deadline missed.
